This record for the market poultry project members as part of the project. By keeping your record up to date you will be able to see how much progress you make as you set goals and work to accomplish them. Write clearly. If you need help, ask your parents or leaders to work with you. Add notebook paper to your records if you need more space. Use one copy of this record for each of the following market poultry projects you enroll in: chickens, turkeys, and ducks.
